A fire in early September has closed the Radway Agricentre for the rest of the year.

"The insurance company feels they should be doing fixing and cleaning early in the new year," said Radway Agricultural Society president Charles Newell. "Insurance will cover the costs of repairing the wall and ceiling, replacing flooring and cleaning the smell of smoke from everything in the building.

Despite that, the Ag Society faces financial difficulty. "Financially, we're in a tough spot," Newell said. "It's an expensive building to keep going."

Even before closing for several months this year because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the agricentre had lost its three major summer events. The Polka Fest held during Pioneer Days was not going to be held this year. The Fiddle Festival moved to Fort Saskatchewan and the spring Music Fest moved to Ponoka.

Because of the pandemic, some weddings booked for this summer were re-scheduled to next year. "It's going to be tough," said Newell. "It's an expensive building to keep going."

Including insurance and utilities, managing the agricentre cost $1,000 per month.

Following the heavy rains earlier this year which overflowed the eavestroughs and caused water to leak into the building, Ag Society members decided to replace the eavestroughs with larger ones. It appears the fire was caused by this work.

Newell said Sept. 29 that two fire investigators had already examined the building and another was scheduled to come out.

"They're still investigating," he said. "But it appears a hot piece of metal fell inside. The fire started in the wall and went up to the attic. I would never have dreamed in a million years something like that could have caused a fire."

The agricentre has an alarm system. When the fire started, an alarm rang at the home of Ag Society members Ernie and Linda Halun. They called 911.

Thorhild County fire chief Dave Fiddler said county firefighters were dispatched at 7:04 a.m. and were on the scene at 7:11. The fire was in the Melinite insulation, which had to be soaked with water. The most damage to the building was caused by water. Because the fire smoulders in the insulation, the fire department returned later on Sept. 5 to douse hot spots. Fiddler also went back the following day to check it.

"They were on the ball," said Newell. "A steel building like this, there not enough heat from the fire to do structural damage, but it makes a mess."

Thorhild County assisted the Radway Agricentre in January 2020 with a $20,000 donation and in January 2017 with $4,573 for operating costs.

The Thorhild Waste Management of Canada arena will open mid-October for the 2020-2021 season. Thorhild Minor Hockey president Cody Siemens said there will be U7, U9 and U13 teams playing in Thorhild this year. As well, teams from Fort McMurray have called to book ice time.

Numbers for Thorhild recreational fun hockey are not yet available, so it is not known if they require ice time.

The Thorhild Ukrainian Dance Club will continue to use the upstairs dance hall. The Thorhild arena will open mid-October for the 2020-2021 season.
LGBTQIA2S+ seminar a success in Redwater

The education and information seminars on “From Home to Work, how does it feel to be LGBTQIA2S+,” held in Redwater Sept. 26 were well received by participants. LGBTQIA2S+ is an acronym for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer and/or Questioning, Intersex, Asexual, Two-Spirit and other ways people choose to self-identify.

“We had a lot of positive feedback in that they hope we do this again,” said event Organizer Laila Olsen, who is a Redwater & District Chamber of Commerce events committee, the Town of Redwater. The town also provided space at Pembina Place for the event.

“The town was phenomenal. I can’t say enough for what the town did for us,” said participant Darlene Sawchuk. “This helps bring the conversation to the forefront. It helps anyone who needs support for something like this.”

The seminars were presented by a volunteer presenter who is a transgender female. The need for this type of educational seminar is shown in that for her safety, her last name and picture are not made public. Her information covered the toll a transition takes on a person physically, emotionally and mentally, and financially, what it is like to be a member of the LGBTQIA2S+ community, what the different pronouns mean and how a community can create a safe space for LGBTQIA2S+ members.

Directors attending the information sessions included Morinville-St. Albert MLA and Associate Minister for Natural Gas and Electricity Dale Nally; Green Party of Alberta co-chair Cass Nally; Green Party of Alberta co-chair Cass Nally; and councillor Joanne Williams and Rob Olsen.

“Celebrating diversity and inclusion is always a good thing for the community,” said Nally. “It was happy to support this event in addition to learning a few things that I didn’t already know.”

“I think any kind of awareness, education or information session is a great way for all people to get a better understanding as to why people are different, how they get treated and sometimes persecuted by society,” said Smith. “I learned a great deal on Saturday. Thanks to the Chamber of Commerce for hosting this session. This is all part of being a more inclusive community.”

Rob Olsen attended the afternoon session. “I did learn a few things,” he said. “I think it would be beneficial if it was held more to enable people in mentor positions to understand what (LGBTQIA2S+) people go through.”

These seminars were a success due to the hard work of the Redwater and District Chamber of Commerce events committee, the Town of Redwater, and many local businesses who graciously donated to make this day happen,” said Linda Olsen. “It was a team effort by the people who helped. The town was phenomenal. I can’t say enough for what the town did for us.”

The event was held by the Redwater & District Chamber of Commerce in partnership with the Town of Redwater. The town also provided space at Pembina Place for the event.

Gene Sobolewski hired as Smoky Lake County’s new CAO

Gene Sobolewski is Smoky Lake County’s new Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) as of Sept. 24.

“I have been working for the county and commission and am looking forward to the opportunity to take the position as the county’s CAO,” said Sobolewski.

He has decades of diverse experience in local government, having worked for municipalities in public works and engineering as well as serving on Town of Bonnyville council in various terms and then as mayor for two terms. He is currently serving as mayor and intends to continue in that position for the time being.

Sobolewski said “I am not in the position to change that “will be based on work load and eventual relocation. You let those things develop as they do.”

Sobolewski has been working in the municipal field for 35 years in various capacities, starting in construction and later in senior management. For the last 17 years he has worked as a senior project manager for Associated Engineering, a large firm specializing in municipal infrastructure, regional water systems, sewer systems, roads and bridges. He has worked with Smoky Lake County and its water commission since 2011. That was part of the reason he wanted to become the county CAO.

“They’re already like family,” Sobolewski explained. “I’ve been working with them since 2011. I’m familiar with a lot of the issues, so I let the ground running. I didn’t have to steep a learning curve to work into the organization.”

Sobolewski was hired as an avowed musician who plays rhythm guitar and bass and sings. Sobolewski enjoys every opportunity to play his song, the theme song for the Bonnyville Legion jam nights, parades and around campfires.

“I’m a musician,” said Sobolewski. “I play where ever possible.”

Sobolewski takes over from former CAO Cory Ollikka who passed away suddenly in July.

Smoky Lake County’s new CAO is Gene Sobolewski.

THE REVIEW, Redwater, Alberta, 780-942-2023, info@theredwaterreview.com, Wednesday, October 7, 2020, Page A3
After owning the Egremont Hotel nearly 18 years, Graham and Colleen Waterman sold it as of Sept. 30. During the past several weeks they gave many of the watermelon knick-knacks and memorabilia from The Watermelon Patch pub to their customers.

“We’ve loads of emotions,” said Colleen. “Some sadness and some tears.” They are continuing to live in Egremont, and will maintain their friendships in the community. “That cushions it,” Graham said. “It’s a gentle break.” On the bright side, when he goes to the bar he won’t be working. “I can come have a beer or a game of pool without having to go cook for someone,” he added.

“Every Limey wants a pub,” said Graham. “I can say I’ve done it now. I’d keep this going forever, but I don’t have the energy.” He plans to keep busy being retired and working on their home in Egremont. Colleen is continuing her career working in the Thorhild County administration office.

Watermans owned the Egremont Hotel the longest of any of its owners since it was built in 1947. They named the bar the Watermelon Patch Pub. In their 17.5 years there they fixed, remodelled and upgraded the building.

“We spent every dime we earned on it,” said Graham. They celebrated the hotel’s 60th anniversary in 2007, and had three former owners come to the event.

They also hosted karaoke, fixed up a car to look like a piece of watermelon for parades, and for five years held a watermelon growing contest. Janet Berry won on the contest three years in a row.

Live bands were one of the highlights at the Watermelon Patch. There was no cover charge on band nights. “We had some great bands over the years here,” said Graham. “We had some really, really good music here.”

Colleen said another highlight was when they introduced couples who eventually got married. Graham laughed and said, “I’m not sure if that’s a highlight or a low light. You’d have to ask them.”

Over the years friends, patrons and guests gifted the Watermelon Patch with all kinds of decorative watermelon-themed items, everything from magnets and pictures to statues and umbrellas. Their friend, Peter Seadon, made a life-sized watermelon themed nutcracker. This 80lb decoration will be taken to Waterman’s home. Many of the other items were shared with pub patrons.

“The watermelons are going to continue in the households of Colleen and Graham’s wonderful customers,” said Colleen. “There’s a lot of watermelon decor in the Watermelon Patch.”

Siczek, Karl Joseph
June 27, 1943
Alpen Siding, Alberta
September 25, 2020
Calgary, Alberta

Karl Joseph Siczek, beloved husband of Pauline Siczek (nee Yaceyko), of Cochrane, AB, passed away on Friday, September 25, 2020 at the age of 77 years.

Dad was born on a farm, in Alpen Siding, AB, and spent his teen years living with the Malloy family on a farm near Leduc. In his early 20’s he went to NAIT and completed his Mechanical Engineering. It was there that he met Mom and they were married in 1963. Soon after their wedding they moved from Edmonton to Redwater where Dad started working for Esso Resources. In 1968 he and Mom moved to Swan Hills and he continued to work for Esso Resources for the next fourteen years. In 1982 he accepted a position with Esso Chemicals, as an Instrument Technician at the fertilizer plant in Redwater. They moved into Redwater and eventually they purchased an acreage just outside of Redwater where Dad was in his happy place. He and mom loved it out there. All of their grandchildren have very happy memories of time spent there. They then moved to Fort Saskatchewan and eventually to Cochrane.

We are deeply saddened by the passing of our Dad (Gido). He was a gentle, loving soul that would do anything to help anyone. His smile would light up a room. He loved to socialize and would welcome anyone into his home with a smile and hug and offer a drink the minute they walked in the door. He was known to give “The Best Hugs” by everyone who knew him. He spent his leisure time volunteering for the Parish Church, Knights of Columbus, and doing church maintenance. He loved woodworking, hobby farming, spending time with family and friends and barbecuing. He was an amazing man, loved by all. Karl is survived by his wife of forty-five years, Pauline Siczek, daughter Sharon (Duane) Boyce of Redwater, Alberta, sons, Paul (Hester) Siczek of Vancouver, BC, and Don (Charlene) Siczek of Hinton, AB; three grandchildren, Krystopher (Luella) Boyce, Josephy (Bray) Boyce, and Daniel Siczek; two great-grandchildren, Donald and Benson Boyce; sisters, Carol (Jacques) Ducelot of Creaston, BC, Stefania (Milo) Thompson of Swan Hills, AB; grandchildren, Donald and Bensen Boyce; sisters, Carol (Jacques) Ducelot of Creaston, BC, Stefania (Milo) Thompson of Swan Hills, AB; foster brother Allan (HeLEN) Malloy of Leduc; was predeceased by his foster brother Dennis (Sylvia) Malloy of Leduc. Funeral Mass will be celebrated at St. Mary’s Catholic Church (10 River Heights Drive, Cochrane, AB), on Friday, October 2, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. Due to Covid-19, anyone planning to attend the funeral must have their names registered. They can call or text Sharon 403-481-6981 to register.

Unfortunately, due to Covid-19 restrictions, there will be no reception or luncheon following the mass. Condolences, memories and photos may be shared and viewed on Karl’s obituary at www.McInnisandHolloway.com.

Marcel Parent of Redwater had his lost wallet, complete with cash and credit cards, returned to him six months after he lost it. It was found behind a table at Sue’s Treasures in Redwater.

“Sue brought it over herself,” said Parent. “She just showed up at the door with it, with all the cash and cards still in it. I offered her $50, but she wouldn’t take it. That’s honesty for you.” His wallet held about $350 in cash plus numerous credit cards. He had cancelled the cards shortly after losing his wallet.

Sue’s Treasures owner Sue Henderson said store staff member Cheryl Senych found the wallet while cleaning. She moved a table that had been in place for a long time and discovered Parent’s wallet.

“I saw his license right away and knew where he lives,” Henderson said. “I felt it would not be right to take money for returning someone’s property to them. ‘People have to be kind, you know,’” said Henderson.
